

Spring 2020

Faculty COVID-19 Reflection 11

Carley Knight
Jacksonville State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.jsu.edu/lib_ac_covidfacreflect

Recommended Citation

Knight, Carley, "Faculty COVID-19 Reflection 11" (2020). COVID-19 Faculty Reflections. 9.
https://digitalcommons.jsu.edu/lib_ac_covidfacreflect/9

This Document is brought to you for free and open access by the COVID-19 Archive at JSU Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in COVID-19 Faculty Reflections by an authorized administrator of JSU Digital Commons. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@jsu.edu.

Spring 2020 | COVID-19 Reflection

Name: Carley Knight

Faculty Rank: Associate Professor

Department: Public Services

School: Library

Lastly I wanted to talk about how the COVID-19 pandemic has changed my teaching and work at JSU's Houston Cole Library. This year I had to move an STU 101 class online. Luckily I had been using Canvas regularly throughout the semester so that was not much of a problem. We had covered most of the requirements for the class and were in the middle of the week on advising. I have been in regular contact with my students and am happy to hear that they have been able to sign up for the classes they were interested in for the summer and fall semesters. One of my students did drop my class which was surprising. I also teach online for French 101 and 102. Those classes have continued on per usual with some extra leniency built-in on my part for accepting late assignments. With the COVID-19 I have had to be more flexible with the due dates to accommodate for the extra stress the students are under during this time.