ev-'ry moth-er's eye there is a tear, And on her lips a prayer could you but hear. — oft she mur-murs to her-self a-lone, I hope that I'll be here when he comes home. —

Chorus. Slowly.

There's a va-cant chair that's wait-ing there, In ev-'ry home to-night, —

— And a lone-some moth-er's dream-ing, By the fire-side burn-ing bright, —

— She is think-ing of her gal-lant boy, who is fight-ing for the right, — There's a va-cant chair in ev-'ry home, in ev-'ry home to-night. — There's a night. —

POPULAR SONG HITS OF THE DAY

"When the War Is Over I'll Return to You"

Lyrics by BIDE DUDLEY

Music by FREDRIC WATSON

A great marching song with an inspiring melody that is one of the catchiest martial tunes ever written, now being introduced and sung at all training camps.

"That's What God Made Mothers For"

By LEO WOOD

Author of "You Broke My Heart to Pass the Time Away," "Are You Half the Man," "Your Mother Thought You Were?" "I Wonder Where My Old Gal Is To-Night?"

A beautiful sentimental ballad telling a true story of mother love, blended with a beautiful melody that continually haunts you. This song should be in every home.

"There's a Vacant Chair in Every Home To-Night"

Words by ALFRED BRYAN

Music by ERNEST BREUER

A song already popular, by the writer of "Joan of Arc" and hundreds of other hits. Alfred Bryan pronounces this song the best he has ever written, while Ernest Breuer, the composer, now serving his country "over there," has written a melody, once heard, will live in your memory forever.

"Over in Hero Land"

Words by ARTHUR FREED

Music by LOUIS SILVERS

A sweetheart's prayer for her loved one across the seas. A beautiful song both in words and music, now being sung in vaudeville by Lola Wentworth, the marvelous vocalist, also by Edith Helena of the Aborn Opera Co.

"Mothers of France"

Words and Music by LEO WOOD

A stirring march ballad that grips the singer and hearer, a masterpiece both in words and music, a worthy tribute to those brave mothers of France and America who have given their fighting sons for a noble cause.

"The Little Boy That Never Was"

Poem by RACHEL STOREY

Music by FREDRIC WATSON

A beautiful dream story set to music by the well-known composer, Fredric Watson.
