ABOUT THE SOUTHERN PLAYWRIGHTS COMPETITION

The Southern Playwrights Competition is celebrating its nineteenth anniversary. An outgrowth of the highly successful production of Randy Hall's Black Warrior eighteen years ago, SPC seeks to identify and encourages plays by Southerners about the Southern experience. Previous winners are D.K. Beyer's Make Haste Slowly (1989), Granville Burgess' Play It As It Lies (1990), Sarah Lawrence's Liberty (1993), Pamela Parker's A Higher Place in Heaven (1995), Terry Sneed's and Elaine Ferguson's Mole Hill (1996), Ronald Amos' A Seacoast in Illyria (1997), Kenneth Heaton's Mustard Seed (1998), Daniel DuPlantis' Tennessee's Rose (1999), Daniel DuPlantis' The Bayou Merchant (2000), Maureen McGranaghan's Blood of the Bear (2001), Robert Leland Taylor's Kentucky Wings (2002), Ron Osborn's Wise Women (2003), David Muschell's Heroes (2004), Barry Bradford's Was (2005), and David hall's Piano (2006). Some of the winners, including Joan Vail Thorne's The Exact Center of the Universe (1994), have gone on to Broadway and Off-Broadway productions.

ABOUT THE PLAYWRIGHT

Evan Guilford Blake's plays have received about 100 productions across the U.S., in Canada, England, Israel and Australia. He has won 22 playwriting competitions, as well as awards for short fiction, children's work and poetry. Playscripts publishes his plays The Firebird and True Magic: A Christmas Farce with Unoriginal Music for the Entire Family. Two other scripts are forthcoming later this year from small presses.

Evan's other published work includes numerous articles and stories, the text for a children's picture book and contributions to two collections of monologues. He's a member of the Dramatists Guild, a Resident Playwright emeritus at Chicago Dramatists (where Other People's Dreams was developed), produces and teaches at Atlanta's Academy Theatre, and is the Coordinator of the Atlanta Storytelling Festival. He and his wife, freelance writer and jewelry designer Roxanna Guildford-Blake, live in the Atlanta area with their two lovable, dumb-as-dirt doves, Quill and Gabriella.

PLEASE SILENCE CELL PHONES, PAGERS, WATCHES, ETC.

The photographing or sound recording of any performance or the possession of any device for photographing or sound recording inside the theatre, without the written permission of the management, is prohibited by law. Offenders may be ejected and liable for damages and other lawful remedies.

Please remember that noise and of any type and lights from cell phones is distracting not only to those seated around you, but to the actors on stage.

NO SMOKING ALLOWED IN ERNEST STONE PERFORMING ARTS CENTER.

RESTROOMS ARE LOCATED IN THE LOBBY.

Soft drinks sold in the lobby during intermission by Alpha Psi Omega.

Proceeds are applied to the scholarship fund.

Latecomers seated at the discretion of the House and Box Office Managers.

SUMMER THEATRE CAMP

Plans are under way for the 4th Annual Youth Theatre Camp at JSU. Dates for the camp are June 22-27 from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. daily. The camp is designed for children age six to thirteen. Snacks and water will be provided. The camp will cover many aspects of theatre—acting, singing, dance, puppetry, crafts, face painting, costume making, scenery painting, etc. The children will prepare and present skits, songs, or dance for their families and friends for a final evening performance.

Please phone 782-5623 if you are interested in further information and to register your child or grandchild for this fun adventure.
