FEATURED ACTORS

LAUREL READ, (Ellen and the Giant's Wife in JACK AND THE BEANSTALK), is a veteran of the JSU stage who graduated this spring with a major in Drama. Laurel has recently appeared in such shows as MAKE HASTE SLOWLY and THE COMEDY OF ERRORS. She can also be seen in JACK AND THE BEANSTALK playing dual roles of Dame Isobel and the Giant's Wife.

STEVEN WHITTON, (Bellomy, and John in ANY WEDNESDAY), returns for his third dinner theatre season. Since last summer, he has appeared in Frayn's farce NOISES OFF, Miller's drama THE PRICE, and Shakespeare's THE COMEDY OF ERRORS. In his other life, Steven Whitton is Professor of English at Jacksonville State University.

SALLY SIMPSON, (Dorothy and Mother in JACK AND THE BEANSTALK), is a 1987 Drama graduate of JSU, has been "on" since the age of three, when she and her twin sister were child models. From performances on a Kansas City teen dance show, to a one-year stint with a Columbus, Ohio theatre company, this versatile actress has never stopped performing. Local audiences have seen Sally in HMS PINAFORE, FOLLIES, at Birmingham's Town & Gown Theatre, and in the Theatre of Gadsden's recent production of MOUSETRAP. Sally was also featured in both of last year's summer dinner theatre productions, UNDER THE YUM YUM TREE and VERONICA'S ROOM.

SCOTT CROLEY, (Cass and Director of JACK AND THE BEANSTALK), recently graduated from JSU majoring in Drama. This fall he will begin studies in the M.F.A. acting program at Northern Illinois University in DeKalb. In his three years with the JSU Drama Department, Scott directed three and performed in sixteen productions.
