

Huntsville, Ala.
March 14th 1876.

Dear John:

Mr L. M. Peavey an employe in the department of Collector Pathom was wounded by unknown parties some time since while in the discharge of his duties, and of late is suffering greatly of his wounds.
He desires to be retired, and put on pension roll, and receive the pay allowed by law. If you can do anything for him please do it. If you have time write him here. His name is Lewis M. Peavey. His P. O. address is here.

What has become of the Committee on Claims? - No report yet.

Yours truly

Jos. D. Brandon
