Restrooms are located in the lobby.

The use of cameras or tape recorders is strictly prohibited.

Please remember that noise such as whispering, coughing, the rustling of programs, the removing of plastic wrappers on candies or lozenges, and the beeping of digital watches and pagers can be distracting to performers and also spoil the performance for other members of the audience. Latecomers will be seated in the late seating area when available or at intermission.

Smoking is allowed only on the front terrace of Ernest Stone Performing Arts Center.

Jacksonville State University Drama Department is an accredited member of the National Association of Schools of Theatre.

TASTE OF THE TOWN SUMMER DINNER THEATRE ANNOUNCES ITS 1996 SEASON

Taste of the Town summer theatre proudly announces its 1996 summer season which tentatively will feature an audience participation musical based on the classic tale, RED RIDING HOOD, adapted by drama graduate, Eric Traynor. The play, which we hope to have Mr. Traynor direct, will run July 15-20 and 22-26 at Stone Center. The first offering of the dinner theatre season will be Bernard Slade's comedy, ROMANTIC COMEDY, which will run July 11-14 and 18-20 at Leone Cole Auditorium. The second of our dinner theatre shows will be Herb Gardner's comedy, A THOUSAND CLOWNS, which will run July 25-28 and August 1-3, also at Leone Cole Auditorium. As in the past, Marriott, Corp will present an all-you-care-to-eat buffet.

To receive a brochure or further information please call 205-782-5648 or write to: Taste of the Town JSU Summer Dinner Theatre, 700 Pelham Road, North, 339 Stone Center, Jacksonville, AL 36265.
