Now John H. Caldwell;

Dear Cousin;

Excuse me^x for again troublin you, but I dont think your last, or Commissioner Gill's is satisfactory. for in the pention Claim, of Mrs Donaldson's being rejected in May of 175, on the ground of her marriage with said Soldier before of or after the Close of the war. I cant see how that has anything to do with her getting what was due him at his death, if he could have drawn it, at any time, why is it, that she cant do what he failed to do, There is a hitch somewhere, please search it out for us, she is certainly entitled to what was due him at his death

Yours Respectfully
C. L. White
