

BRANDON & JONES,

Attorneys at Law.

Huntsville, Ala. July 4th 1876.

Cousin John:-

I have just heard of the failure of Bassett Young, and have now to present for your consideration the name of Maup. W. Hopkins grandon of Judge Hopkins, and Gov. Bibb. He is said to be a young man of considerable brain, and sprightliness.

If you can give him the appointment I will be glad.

All well, and send love. When do you think Congress will adjourn?

Yours truly,

Mad. Brandon
