It's a good thing to be a Leaguer
It's the best thing I Know
It's a good thing to worship Jesus
As heavenward we go.
Goodbye to sin and sorrow
Farewell doubt and fear
It's a grand good thing to be a Leaguer
And that's why we're here.

FOLLOW THE GLEAM

To the Knights in the days of old,
Keeping watch on the moun-tain heights,
Came a vision of Holy Grail
And a voice through the waiting night.
Follow, Fol-low, follow the gleam
Banners un-furled o'er all the world.
Follow, follow, follow the gleam Of the Chal-ice that is the Grail.
And-wo who would serve the King,
And- loy-al-ly Him o-bey
In the consecrate silence know
That the challenge still holds to-day.
Fol-low, fol-low, follow the gleam
Standards of worth o'er all the earth,
Fol-low, fol-low, fol-low the gleam
Of the light that shall bring the dawn

DEAR OLD S.N.S.

How I love you, how I love you,
Dear old S.N.S.

Where the boys and girls together

Are striving for success

We adore you, we adore you

And we are working with a will

In our dear old alma mater

In the town of Jacksonville.

CHORUS

Mid the hills of Alabama

Stands our dear old S.N.S.

There's the fount of all our knowledge

There's our hope of happiness

I'll ne'er forget all of our pleasures

And our striving for success

Mid the hills of Alabama

In the dear old S.N.S.

SECOND VERSE

I am thinking, I am thinking,

Of the time when we must part

For I know there'll be some weeping

And a sighing in our hearts

We'll no longer have our teachers

We must choose our future way

But we hope to be a blessing

Till our locks are silvery gray.

Win Over

Marion

Selma, Ala., Nov. 2. 1929. The Jacksonville State Teachers College defeated Marion Institute

30 to 0 here this afternoon. The game went scoreless during the first half of the game with both teams showing plenty of fight and some good football.

The Teachers came back in the second half with a quintet of touchdowns. The Teachers began skirting the ends as the second half started and after a few large gains around the terminals the Cadets were unable to stop them on any attack.

Touchdowns were scored by Reece, R. Curry (2), Shorty Hall and Carr.

Morgan Society Girls

Last Tuesday night the parlor of the girls' dormitory was filled with eager Morgans and anxious Calhouns to enjoy a very interesting program given by the Morgan girls. At the beginning of the meeting Miss Opal Powell gave a very inspiring talk, the subject being "Morgan Society Spirit." This was followed by one of the most humorous scenes of the term, a "Black Face Minstrel," with Miss Vivian McClendon representing Honorable Abner Rooster and Miss Ruth Hamric representing Brother Turnipseed. The program was concluded with a debate the subject being "Resolved that it is Better to Have Had a Sweetheart and Lost Him than Never to Have Had One." Miss Katherine Byrom (Katherine Bryon) and Hazel Griffeth (Hazel Griffith) were on the affirmative side and Misses Eugenia Talmadge and Rosa Rpsa Mae Wilhite were the negative speakers. After the program the Morgans had a business meeting to discuss the plans for the Manless Dance which will be given on November 9th, under the auspices of the Morgan Society.

This will be one of the greatest events of the fall.

POEM ON JACKSONVILLE

Mr. C. E. Bondurant has received a letter from Rev. B. F. Tingle formerly a citizen of Jacksonville, enclosing an interesting poem on Jacksonville, which we publish below:

Mr. C. E. Bondurant,
Jacksonville, Ala.,

Dear Mr. Bondurant:

I am mailing you and the Exchange Club my poem on Jacksonville. I wrote it one evening in only a short time, and, as you can see, it is everything but perfect. And, too, I am not a poet. But I do feel that in a very limited way, it expresses the spirit of our good old town. As long as I am here I shall do everything in my power to boost and help to advertise our town. I wish to be, though I am sure that it will be in a very limited way, however, an asset and not a liability. You and the good people of Jacksonville have blessed and helped me since I came among you.

I am yours fraternally,

B. F. TINGLE.

JACKSONVILLE

Surrounded by mountains, valleys and rills,

Stands old Jacksonville, "the Gem of the Hills!"

With its crystal springs and bubbling pools,

With its gorgeous homes and its excellent schools.

With its thousands of spindles and humming mills,

Surrounded with fertile farms and blue-gray hills;

With its cultured peoples and its tree-lined streets,

With its marble Tomb, where the gallant Pelham sleeps;

With its healthy climate and its sun-kissed flowers;

With its splendid churches, with their spiritual bowers.

If in such a Utopia you would like to live,
Then, come to Jacksonville,
the “Gem of the Hills!”

ACT ONE:

Scene 1—Evening scene near old Capistrano Mission.

Scene 2—Garden of Ortego's Ranch, next morning.

ACT TWO:

Garden, three weeks later.

ACT THREE:

Roadside scene near Mission, evening.

ARGUMENT

The Ortego ranch is under a dark cloud. Drought and mysterious disappearance of cattle have left Ramon, its present master, with but one herd to pay off the mortgages held by Jake Kraft. Noneeta, an Indian girl, is a maid in the Ortego household, and is loved by Lone Eagle, a young chief. Medicine Man Pose calls upon his gods to restore the tribe's lost lands, tells of a curse on the ranch and Capistrano Mission because of wrongs done to the Indians a curse lifted only when the bells of the Mission shall ring again. Kraft urges Pose to “rustle” the Ortego cattle. Noneeta overhears, and begs Lone Eagle to save the Ranch, jealous of Ramon, he first refuses, but finally promises to bring back the herd on the night of the full moon.

Prof. Anderson, his sister Laura and students arrive at the ranch. Three of the boys fall in love with the Ortego sisters. Marian arrives with her father, James Alden, who has been sent to restore the Mission. Word comes that the great herd has been stolen. Noneeta tells Marian of Lone Eagle's promise and sacrifice, and explains that if the Mission bells were to ring on the night of the full moon, the Indians would believe the curse lifted, the cattle would be restored, and Lone Eagle saved. Marian discovers an old painting which discloses a secret map of a mine of great richness. The mortgage threatens to make this discovery useless; and the sullen Indians prevent access to the Mission. Noneeta eludes them as the ranchers despair, and causes the old bells to break their long silence as the full moon rises Lone Eagle drives in the herd, and the Indians are reconciled with Ramon, who promises restoration of their lands.

HOLY BIBLE

One Book For All People

HOLY BIBLE
One Book
For All People

ONE BOOK FOR ALL PEOPLE

Sing unto the Lord, all the earth; shew forth from day to day his salvation. (I Chron. 16:23)

Declare his glory among the heathen; his marvellous works among all nations. (I Chron. 16:24)

Say among the heathen that the Lord reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously. (Psalm 96:10)

Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of thy law. (Psalm 119:18)

Teach me, O Lord, the way of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. (Psalm 119:33)

O how love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. (Psalm 119:97)

How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth. (Psalm 119:103)

Through thy precepts I get understanding: therefore I hate every false way. (Psalm 119:104)

Thy word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path. (Psalm 119:105)

The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple. (Psalm 119:130)

Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever. (Psalm 119:160)

God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, (Heb. 1:1)

Hath in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; (Heb. 1:2)

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. (John 3:16)

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. (John 3:17)

There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. (Gal. 3:28)

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: (Mt. 28:19)

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world. (Mt. 28:20)

After this I beheld, and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; (Rev. 7:9)

And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb. (Rev. 7:10)

And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God, (Rev. 7:11) Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be unto our God for ever and ever. (Rev. 7:12)

And there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

The Coal Bin

BY HENRY VANCE

PIE

I HEAR you are a widow now—

Old sweetheart of mine.

There's sorrow's furrows on your brow;

But still you're looking fine.

I'm sorry that you needs must cry

For him whose lot it was to die

From eating pie.

I come to offer sympathy—

Old sweetheart of mine.

'Tis sad; digestions disagree

With pastry as with wine.

It might have been for me, you cried;

I might have been your mate who died

From being pied.

Still, since you wish, I'll take a chance—

Old sweetheart of mine.

I know pies made by you enhance

Your cuisine, so I'll dine

With you today. We both shall sigh

For him. I shall not fear to die,

So cut the pie.

ASTIGMATISM

Old Father Intox went to his gin-box

And took out a bottle of brew.

He drank it—and then

Went back there again;

There was one bottle left. He saw two.

F. O. TOBIAS.

THE CYNICS' PSALM OF LIFE

(With apologies to Longfellow)

Tell me not in any numbers

Life is not an awful pain!

Let the dead soul have its slumbers;

Really there is naught to gain.

Life is only what you make it!

Let this thought within you burn;

As you find it, always take it,

For, once dead, you'll ne'er return.

Not distress, but great enjoyment,

Is our destined end or way;

Let's get rid of unemployment,

That each one might have his day.

In the social world of prattle,

In the give and take of life,

Take a hand, and fight your battle—

Be a he-man in the strife!

* * *

Trust no future, howe'er pleasant;

Take things while the taking's grand;
Live, live only in the present;
On its legs each thing must stand.
Time is fleet, and Art is longin'
To be near the hearts of men;
Where can there be any wrong in Taking several shots of gin!
Gin that you share with another,
Drifting on life's raft with you,
A lovelorn and "stood-up" brother,
Drinking, shall his heart renew.
Lives of great men all remind us,
We can joys of life partake,
And, departing, leave behind us
Nothing—life's an awful fake!
GUMMATICALLY SPEAKING

I cannot understand
Why some folks often throw
Upon the sidewalk things
Where others come and go.
I've stepped on many things
To my embarrassment,
Banana peel and such
Things without much comment.
But there's one thing that can
Make me my temper lose:
It is to get a wad
Of gum stuck to my shoes;
It almost makes me rave,
I never can keep mum
Whene'er I step upon
A wad of chewing gum.
It sticketh closer than
A brother—it just stays—
And like the poor, you'll find
You'll have with you always.
S. B. G.

THE COCK-EYED WORLD
Couzens and Cox and Cordell Hull
Went to the World E C.,
But the money I lent to boys abroad
Hasn't come back to me.
The merry ha ha is all I get
When I mention the money due;
I'm a money shark, a mean Shylock,
Talk about something new.
If you want our trade you must lend us cash
And sell us your goods on time;
If we owe you we don't intend to pay
So much as a polished dime.
Reverse the initials W. E. C.
And Cock-Eyed World is what 't will be.

Ready for

Bowden

Jacksonville, Ala., Nov 6, 1929

Coach Al Clemens is driving the State Teachers College grid- ders hard this week to be in readiness for Coach Bud Harris'

Bowdon State College team, which will be met on the Jacksonville campus at 2:30 Saturday P. M. Little is known of the Bowdon team, other than the fact that Holder and Miles, former Jacksonville letter men are in the line-up, as well as several former Howard letter men.

The State Teachers College grid- ders returned from Selma, where they administered a 30 to 0 defeat to Marion Institute cadets with renewed energy .The team has been greatly strengthened by the recuperation of Hughes and Bryant, regular ends, who were out of the line-up for a couple of weeks. Rabbit Curry, a regular back, who has been on the injured list, is now back in uniform doing his usual amount of line plunging and broken field running.

The Jacksonville team administered a 75 to 0 defeat to the Bowdon team last year, but it is thought that Coach Bud Harris, a former Howard star, will bring a very strong aggregation to Jacksonville Saturday.

Clemens and his crew of footballers expect to keep a clean slate throughout the remainder of the season, having won two out of five games played up to date, and having three more games yet to play.

APPLE TART

Each day is long and dreary,

The sky is never blue;

Each night my eyes are bleary

When I'm away from you.

The moon withholds its glory,

Refuses e'er to shine

Without love's old, sweet story

Without you, darling, mine.

If I could have my wishes,

We'd never be apart;

My favorite of dishes—

Good home-made apple tart.

Robert Graham.

This program will be the first of a series of Good Will Tour programs which will be handled by the Inter-Club council composed of the Chamber of Commerce
the Rotary, Kiwanis, Civitan and Exchange Clubs.

On account of the winter weather and roads, no programs other than the Jacksonville program will be put on before next spring and summer, when a number of nearby points will be visited by these tours.

The general committee of the Inter-Club council has requested the Exchange Club to provide the first program, and it is anticipated that each of the other clubs will alternate in aiding the Inter Club council in putting on future programs.

One of the features of the program will be rendition by the
A. M. I. Band of a selection which was composed by Capt. Graham T. Overguard, the director, which he dedicated to
Capt. Taylor Branson, director of the famous

President's United States Marine Band on its recent visit to Anniston, which was played by the Marine Band under Captain Overguard as director.

The Inter Club Council desires to impress upon every one that there is no admission, as wide publicity is being given at Jacksonville, Anniston, and Piedmont.

The people from Anniston are expected to reach Jacksonville.
