Sunday
March 22nd
Dear Ed,
I know you think
the "Home Folks" have neglected you But if we haven't written so much we have thought
of "Dear Little Bud" often.
You can never know
how much we all miss you.

J'ville continues dull
and really the monotony of such a quiet, uneventful life has become burdensome.

The young people
are as "old as the hills."
(more or less).

I am sitting at my window, with a good view of the square and I can't see but two people Old Uncle Joe Hoke riding in, with one hand in his pocket, the other clasping his rope reins as if there was danger of his fiery steed taking to his heels.

Old Lady Grant is out
nailing on palings,
if 'tis Sunday, where the
dogs came into the yard and ruined her flowers.

'Tis rumored that Sam
Snow and Annie Cannon
will marry soon. I expect however, you know as much about it as I do. Dr
Francis and Mrs Mat
are more devoted than ever. They take strolls
among the flowers.
Stand in close proximity
on the bank of the fish pond, moon-shiny
nights, gain inspiration from the reflection in the water as 'tis difficult for two such old folks to look up. Miss Willie Francis and George Lumley so "Dame Rumor" has

it, will also be wedded
soon.

I don't see much of your girl recently. She is preparing to leave
soon for school.

Mother and Father arrived home safely last week.

We had a regular jubilee. John and I are going to Rome tomorrow evening. This letter doesn't really merit a reply
however allow your generous nature to
prevail and write to me soon. All send love.

Affectionately
Sister Jessie
