

To the Pastor Officers and Members of the Presbyterian Church at Jacksonville Ala.:

It is the privilege of the writers hereof to communicate to you the following pleasurable fact. On the morning of the 8th Sept.

Inst. a letter was received by the undersigned from which we quote: "Enclosed find Fifty dollars with which you will please purchase a communion service for the Presbyterian Church." xxx "use your own direction as to the time and manner of purchasing and donating the service. Be kind and make no effort to discover the identity of the donor." (signed) "Presbyterian." In compliance with the request of the generous donor, an elegant communion service has been purchased, through the kind and courteous agency of Mr J.T. Doster, in whose care the "service" is - subject to the order of the Officers of the Church.

How literally scriptural this gift has been - "Let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth."!

Will not the church prayerfully unite in the heartfelt wish that the giver of this precious gift may be among the ransomed of the Lord; and present with the redeemed when they sit down at the "Marriage supper of the Lamb."!
