

Jacksonville Ala

Nov. 23rd 1901

Rev. F.T.J. Brandon,
Cedar Bluff Ala.,

My dear sir and friend:

I write at the request of Mrs C. to acknowledge the receipt of the papers sent her, with thanks for your kindness, - and to advise you that, on yesterday, she mailed them to your address, Cedar Bluff Ala.

Col W.W. Brandon wrote me of the death of his sainted mother, and the beloved friend of Mrs. C and myself, for more than fifty years, expressing the desire of the family that we write something in memoriam, as we knew her. I responded willingly, and not being known to the Christian Advocate, I thought it best to send the manuscript directly to Col B. at Montgomery Ala. so as to insure the publication of the article. with his approval.

The tribute rendered, as I felt at the time, was not commensurate with the life and character of the great woman that she was - brilliant and strong in every word and work; but I did the best I could with a loving heart, and sent it as above indicated.

I desire you should know this fact, since it is possible that the paper written has gone astray.

Mrs C. and I continue to grieve with you and the children over your irreparable loss, and wish to be kindly remembered by all of you
