Dearest Jose [Josie]:

I was so glad to get your letter. The data came, too, and last night I checked it with mine. I had much more than yours, even in your immediate branch, so you can copy in all of these dates etc. making it more complete.

I think the hitch was with Andrew Sr. and his two sets of offspring, so I have tried to make it very plain and easy to understand.

I copied these records from Cousin Salita's and Clem Breast's. Both are careful; in fact, it is Clem's hobby. As you know Cousin Salita is from Rebecca Cobb Greer & Henry Allen. Andrew Greer Sr. and Mary Vance's granddaughter and sister of our David Greer; whereas, Clem and the Brentwood Moores are from Andrew Greer Sr. and Ruth Kincaid. Clem told me he was named for Uncle Diemer. I think I've heard that Aunt Bec was named for Rebecca Cobb Greer, her father David A. Greer's sister. Of course I have hundreds of names (descendants) of Andrew Sr. through later generations, which I refer to at times to "place" somebody.

I have all this McGregor – Grierson – Grier – Greer history and much more, in a Greer booklet Katherine Dill Lee sent me. Haven't heard from her in years, but think she lost her mind and was under treatment.

This is our McGregor tartan. I used part of it (a necktie) on ends of a black scarf. Keep if you wish.

I hope to see you this year, sure.

Much love –

Mary
