American Reports, 60 Vols. and Digests

American State Reports, 6 Vols per Year

San Francisco, May 1, 1888.

Dear Sir:

If the publication of American State reports as per enclosed announcement meets your approval, please send us your subscription direct, by signing and returning the enclosed order blank.

We address you from Martindale's Directory; if address is not correct please advise us.

Please state also whether or not you have any volumes of either the American Decisions or the American Reports.

We wish to know the past as well as the present patrons of both series, and through what channels they were supplied.

Yours truly,

BANCROFT-WHITNEY CO.

Please note the change in Prices.

TO THE LEGAL PROFESSION AND THE LAW BOOK TRADE

I hereby give notice to you that I have sold and transferred to the Law Publishing House of Bancroft-Whitney Co., of San Francisco, Cal., my entire right, title and interest in the plates, copyrights and stock of the Law Books heretofore published and owned by me and enumerated as follows:

The American Reports - sixty volumes;
The American Reports Digest - two volumes;
Bingham on the Law of Descent;
Brown's Law Dictionary;
Broom & Hadley's Commentaries on the Laws of England;
Moak's Van Santvoord's Pleading,
Thompson and Browne's National Bank Cases - vols. 1 and 2;
Throop on Verbal Agreements;
Warren's Law Studies;
Warren's Duties of Attorneys;
Wood's Field on Corporations;
Wood's Mayne on Damages;
Wood's Master and Servant;
Wood's Law of Nuisances.

Also my subscription list for continuations to the American Reports and my general good-will to the business.

This transfer places under one management the two great series of law books - the American Decisions in one hundred volumes, covering the period from 1760 to 1869, and the American Reports, sixty volumes, now out, covering the period from 1869 to 1888; and will enable this management to place them before you to much better advantage than heretofore.

In retiring from the law-book business, I wish to thank you for the favors and kindness shown me in the past. I make this transfer more cheerfully from the fact that the Bancroft-Whitney Co. is so well and favorably known. The manner in which they have carried out the great enterprise - the American Decisions - is so satisfactory that I feel assured the high standing of the American Reports will be maintained, and doubtless greatly improved, in the future.

All orders for the books herein named should in future be addressed direct to BANCROFT-WHITNEY CO., 613 Clay Street, San Francisco, Cal.

Respectfully,
JOHN D. PARSONS, JR.

ALBANY, N.Y., April 26th, 1888.

EXTRAORDINARY ANNOUNCEMENT

The HON. A.C. FREEMAN, and his trained Corps of Assistants

Who have brought the "American Decisions" to a successful close, in 100 volumes, have been engaged to undertake the reporting and annotation of the containing the cases of general value and authority, decided in the courts of last resort, of the several States, subsequent to those contained in the "American Decisions" and the "American Reports," selected, reported and annotated by A.C. Freeman, and the Associate Editors of the "American Decisions."

This Great Series is designed to meet the necessities of that intelligent and overworked portion of the profession who recognize the great service rendered them by the publication of the "American Decisions" and "American Reports."

COMPREHENSIVE ANNOUNCEMENT

The undersigned, publishers of the "American Decisions," hereby announce to lawyers of the United States, that they have purchased from Mr. John D. Parsons, Jr., of Albany, New York, the series known as the "American Reports," and now offer to the bench and bar a complete system of selection and annotation of

AMERICAN CASE LAW, 1760-1888

As follows: American Decisions and Digests, 1760-1869, 103 volumes
American Reports and Digests, 1869-1888, 63 volumes continued by the AMERICAN STATE REPORTS, 6 volumes per year.

Index and Supplement to Notes - In order to properly connect the notes to the "AMERICAN DECISIONS" and "AMERICAN REPORTS," we shall prepare, in the next year, an index and supplement to the notes to both series, showing the work done, where it can be found, and supplying the omissions necessary to bring them down to date; the price of which will be $5.00 per volume.

Index-Digest - An index-digest and complete table of cases in the 160 volumes of the "AMERICAN DECISIONS" and "AMERICAN REPORTS" will be issued at an early date, in one alphabetical arrangement, in three large volumes. Price, $15.00.

The Two series, thus completed in 160 volumes, of Reports, with their Digests and Indices, will be supplemented by the

AMERICAN STATE REPORTS

This series will contain a comprehensive selection from the decisions of the several State courts of last resort, as hereafter issued; the chief features of which will be judicious selections, correct reporting and intelligent annotation. It will place at the command of the busy lawyer all that is worthy of permanent preservation and adapted to general use, in Six Volumes per Year. The price will invariably be $4.00 per volume.

ISSUE OF VOLUMES AND PAYMENTS

Volumes will be issued in August, October, December, February, April and June of each year commencing August, 1888. Accounts payable quarterly or semi-annually at the option of the publisher.

The low price at which we inaugurate this great series (low for good work) anticipates the patronage of every lawyer who believes in quality and performance rather than bulk of matter, much of which is at best only local and temporary.
