For nothing lovelier can be found
In woman, than to study household good,
And good works in her husband to promote.
= Milton.

We want each other, so to comprehend
The dream, the hope,- things planned or seen or wrought-Compassion, Comforter and guide and friend

As much as love asks love,
does thought ask thought.
Life is so short, so fast
the love hours fly,
We ought to be together,
you and I -

My hand is lonely for your clasping, dear,
My ear is tired, waiting for your call
I want your strength to help, your laugh to cheer Heart, soul and senses need you,one all. all.
I droop without your full,
frank sympathy
We ought to be together,- you and I.

A Garden Lay.

If you're waking call me early,
Call me early, Carl, my dear.
For tomorrow will be a busy day.
In the garden here!
For I must rake and sow
The centaurea and celosia.

Next I should weed and hoe
Digitalis and hemerocalis.
Then turn the sulfur spray
On Antirrhinum and aquilegia.
Haul sand and leaves and clay to the muscari and convallaria.
Must water, if there's no rain.
Euphorbia and campanulata.
Should gently but firmly train

Convolvulus and bebonia.
Plant Liliium Candidum
In soil without lime,
Or with lime? I can't remember,
Is this the right time,
Or is it next September?
Plant lilies two or ten inches deep?
In sun or shade? I guess I'm asleep.
