

1776-1876

Horticultural Hall, Fairmount Park.

Saturday, December 18th, 1875 at one o'clock P.M.

Hon. J. H. Caldwell M. C.

(Hon. J.H. Caldwell M.C.)

The invitation of the United States Centennial Commission and the Board of Finance to examine the preparations for the celebration of the Nation's hundredth anniversary having been accepted.

The citizens of Philadelphia have the honor to ask that after inspection of the grounds and buildings you will dine with them in Horticultural Hall which by consent of the Commission will be open on the occasion.

Philadelphia, Dec. 11th, 1875.

Hon. J.H. Caldwell M.C. (Hon. J. H. Caldwell)
Rooms for you Accommodation are Provided at the Colonnade House.
J.B. Mitchell (J. B. Mitchell)
for H.

BALTIMORE & POTOMAC RAILROAD CO. PHILADELPHIA, WILMINGTON & BALTIMORE RAILROAD CO.
EXCURSION

Centennial Grounds, Fairmount Park,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Hon. J.H. Caldwell M.C.

This ticket will entitle you to free transportation in

SPECIAL TRAIN, DECEMBER 17th, 1875,

from Washington to Philadelphia,

AND ON ANY SPECIAL OR REGULAR TRAINS UNTIL DECEMBER 20th, 1875, from Philadelphia to Washington.

H.F. Kenney

Gen'l Superintendent

Phila., Wilm. & Ball. R. R.

Frank Thomson

General Manager

Baltimore & Potomac R. R.

Hon. J.H. Caldwell MC.
H of R.

(Hon. J. H. Caldwell MC.)